- How these Adverbs are used in a sentence.

Why It's Important:

- To further your understanding of Grammar and Sentence Structure.
- So you will know how to distinguish Adverbs and the words they modify.

Adverb Clauses:

An Adverb Clause is a subordinate clause that modifies a verb, an adjective, or an adverb.

It is used to tell when, where, why, how, to what extent, or under what conditions.

An Adverb Clause is usually introduced by a subordinating conjunction.

For Example:

I cry whenever I see a sad movie.
